Dear Students and Families,

Welcome to Copperstone Education's SAT® Prep program. We are truly honored to be part of your journey—not just toward a strong SAT® score, but toward long-term academic success and confidence.

At Copperstone, we believe the SAT® is more than a single exam; it's an opportunity to build skills that will serve students well beyond test day. Our US-based SAT® experts, each with scores above 1400, deliver 32 hours of live, interactive instruction alongside 32 hours of self-paced practice, helping students strengthen their thinking, problem-solving, and academic discipline in both Math and Reading & Writing. With full-length mock exams and hands-on experience using tools like Desmos and Bluebook, students gain the confidence they need to perform at their best.

Here in the GCC, our dedicated team works closely with each student, providing personalized guidance, encouragement, and ongoing support every step of the way. We are deeply committed to helping every student grow, achieve their goals, and unlock their full potential, both on the SAT® and beyond.

We look forward to supporting you on this journey.

Warm Regards,

Misti-Dawn Curry

WHY THE SAT® IS IMPORTANT

The SAT® is a crucial standardized test for high school students, especially international students aspiring to study in the United States and reputable universities around the world. It provides a common benchmark to evaluate applicants from diverse educational backgrounds globally, allowing universities to compare their academic readiness fairly. For international students, a strong SAT® score can significantly enhance their college applications. Moreover, it can open doors to various merit-based scholarships specifically available to international students, easing the financial burden of studying abroad.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS ABOUT THE SAT®

? What is the SAT® and why should international students take it?

The SAT® is a standardized test widely used for college admissions in the United States and many other countries. Strong SAT scores can strengthen your application and sometimes qualify you for scholarships at U.S. universities and select international institutions.

? How do I register for the SAT® as an international student?

You can register online at the College Board website. When creating your account, choose your country and nearest test center. Be sure to register early, as international test centers often fill up quickly.

? How much does it cost to take the SAT® internationally?

As of now, the SAT® costs $68 USD plus a $43 USD international testing fee. Additional fees apply for late registration, changes, or extra score reports. Always check the College Board website for the most current pricing.

? Where can I take the SAT® outside the United States?

The SAT® is offered at approved international test centers, often located at international schools, American schools, or universities. You can search for the closest test center during registration.

? How often is the SAT® offered internationally?

International SAT® dates are usually in October, November, December, March, May, and June. Not all dates are available in every country, so confirm availability for your location when planning.

? What identification do I need on test day?

You must bring an acceptable photo ID, such as a passport or national ID card. The name on your ID must match the name on your SAT® admission ticket.

? How do I send my SAT® scores to universities?

When you register, you can select up to four colleges or universities to receive your scores for free. You can send additional reports later for an extra fee through your College Board account.

? Can I take the SAT® more than once?

Yes. Many students take the SAT two or three times to improve their scores. Universities usually consider your highest score or “superscore” across test dates, depending on their policy.

? How should I prepare for the SAT® as an international student?

Copperstone Education SAT Prep features elite-level exam preparation experts who have a deep understanding of the SAT® and the strategies needed to excel. The program is enhanced by a state-of-the-art digital platform to easily monitor progress.

Copperstone's SAT Prep program made a huge difference in my confidence going into the exam. The self-paced practice helped me focus on the areas I needed to improve, and I could study on my own schedule. My teacher was incredibly patient and encouraging, always taking the time to explain difficult questions clearly. Thanks to Copperstone, I walked into the SAT feeling much more prepared and confident.

SAT® PREP RESULTS MATTER!

On average, Copperstone Education students see a remarkable SAT® score increase of 150–200 points. Our proven strategies, expert instruction, and personalized support help students achieve their best results with confidence.
